THE CONTRACT LET.

The Line from Salt Lake to Be Built.

Several New Names Suggested for Harrison's Cabinet.

More Disgraceful Doings in the Indiana Senate.

New Hampshire Preparing to Do Away with a Relic of Puritan Days-Jim Smith Anxious to Meet Jackson-Other East-ern Dispatches.

By Telegraph to the Times. CHICAGO, Jan. 11.-[By the Associated Press.] The Times' Sioux City (Iowa) special says: Information is received today that the contract for grading the Salt Lake and Los Angeles line was let on Wednesday.

SALT LAKE, Jan. 11.-At the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, today, a committee was appointed to perfect a plan for the organization of a company to construct a railroad from Salt Lake City, via Garfield Beach, to a point on the western border of this Territory, at or near Decker. This was the outcome of a proposition to endeavor to build a road from Salt Lake to Los Angeles.

THE INDIANA MUDDLE. Robertson Still Barred Out of the Indiana Press. The scenes around the Senate Chamber today were a mild repetition of those of yesterday. Robertson again demanded admission, saying he was Lieutenant-Governor, but the doorkeeper informed him it was his orders not to permit him to enter. The session was devoted to trivial matters. President Pro Tem. Cox presided without protest from the Republicans.

In the afternoon the Assembly met in joint session and listened to the Governor's message. Gov. Gray earnestly invited attention to the imperative necessity for a revision of the election laws, saying: "It is manifest that public faith in the purity of our elections has become shaken, and the time has come when the decision at the ballot box no longer reflects the honest judgment of a majority of the voters."

On the subject of White Cap outrages, the Governor says: "The principal participants will be rigorously prosecuted, as well as all others against whom evidence can be obtained." He also states that to meet the deficiency now existing in the revenues of this state, a loan of $500,000 is required.

Governor-elect Harvey arrived from Washington tonight and will tomorrow hand Gov. Gray his resignation as Congressman from the First Indiana District. He will be inaugurated on Monday.

THE PLACE-SEEKERS. Several New Names Presented for Harrison's Cabinet. INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 11.-[By the Associated Press.] Birmingham sent another delegation today to visit Gen. Harrison in the persons of G. P. Kirkland and Judge Stratton. Their mission was to present the name of ex-Gov. William H. Smith, as a suitable representative of the South in President Harrison's Cabinet.

Another visitor to the city, but who did not call in person on the President-elect was J. Porter of Chicago, for 17 years prominently identified with the Treasury Department at Washington, and for a time appointment clerk of the treasury. He has just returned from a trip through Colorado, Texas and Arkansas, and as a result of his talks with leading Republicans in those States, he today sent the President-elect a strong petition favoring ex-Gov. John T. Rarick of Denver for a Cabinet place.

Capt. W. S. Lantry of Harrisonburg, Va., arrived this evening. He is a veteran of a Virginia delegation now en route to urge the name of Gen. Mahone as a Cabinet officer. He claims that the Republicans of Virginia are unanimously for Mahone.

SHAMEFUL SWINDLE. Fraud Practiced on a Traveler Bound for Los Angeles. CHICAGO, Jan. 11.-[By the Associated Press.] Lawrence Carr, a feeble old man from Loraine county, O., came to the central police station in great trouble today. He was on his way to join his son in Los Angeles, Cal., and an agent at Cleveland sold him a through ticket. On arrival here he was horrified to learn that the ticket was via the Northern Pacific and by boat down the coast. Beside the fact that he was not fit for such a long and arduous journey he had not money to keep him in food during the trip. The only money he had was a routing him so is said to have been a commission paid by Northern Pacific. The police went to the Lake Shore road officials and after a long search they found the ticket money except the fare from Cleveland here. He will now endeavor to reach his destination with the remainder.

THE RAILWAY TRUST. Two Important Roads Not Yet Included in It. CHICAGO, Jan. 11.-[By the Associated Press.] The only important western lines not represented at the New York meeting of railway presidents and bankers were the Chicago and Alton and Illinois Central. Both President Blackstone of the Illinois Central and Vice-president McMullen of the Chicago and Alton said today that they regarded the plan as a good one, although they were not quite ready to say that they would sign it. They were ready to maintain roads under any scheme that may be proposed, but the peculiar position which the Chicago and Alton occupies by force of circumstances on the question of paying commissions may prevent it from endorsing the provision which prohibits the payment of commissions.

Central approved of the plan of the presidents, and said, as his road had strictly obeyed the provisions of the Interstate law from the time it became effective, he was glad to see other roads deciding to pursue the same policy.

THE PUGILISTS. Jim Smith Challenges Jackson, the Colored Fighter. New York, Jan. 11.-[By the Associated Press.] George W. Atkinson today sent the following cable to this city: "LONDON, Jan. 11. 'Jim Smith, the champion of England, called at the Sporting Life office today and issued a challenge to fight Peter Jackson, according to the London newspaper, for £2000 or £1000 a side, the fight to take place in four or six months from the date of articles, Jackson to be allowed £250 for expenses, and the fight to be decided in France or Spain. If Jackson's backers are ready to accept the proposition, they are to stand the hearing of the case to Monday."

In a dispute over a cock fight at Verdugo Cien a couple of months ago D. Leiva is charged with having murdered G. Lopez. Yesterday Leiva appeared before Superior Judge Cheney and stated that he was not ready for trial, having no counsel to defend him. The court accordingly appointed a counsel for Leiva, and the case was continued.

Udell Hits Through. An Associated Press dispatch from Sacramento last night states that Alva Udell, against whom a complaint was sworn out here by his wife for bigamy, and who was arrested there on a telegram from this city, had been released on a writ of habeas corpus. The complaint was not having been properly drawn. Constable Clements went up to bring Udell back Thursday night, but was disappointed.

PRICE: Single Copies 5 Cents. By the Week, 3 Cents.

Jackson to name the time of fighting and the amount of the stakes. If the match is for $1000 a side, Smith will allow Jackson $1000 for expenses.

This message was repeated to Jackson at the California Athletic Club. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.-Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist of Australia, when shown the cable dispatch this evening announcing that Jim Smith had issued a challenge to fight him here, said that he would meet him here would have to come to California, as he would fight nowhere but in the California Athletic Club, and that his mind was not yet made up whether he would meet Smith under any circumstances.

LONDON, Jan. 11.-Jackson's backer, Moyle, says for New York about the middle of February. He will witness the fight with Kirilin in San Francisco, and will return to England with Jackson, wherever wins.

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.), Jan. 11.-Patsy Cardiff has telegraphed his acceptance of the proposition of the California Athletic Club that he meet Jackson, the Australian, in San Francisco in April. The winner to receive $2500 and the loser $500.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES.

New Hampshire Abolishes a Relic of Puritan Days. CONCORD (N. H.), Jan. 11.-[By the Associated Press.] At the Constitutional Convention today the consideration of the special order was entered upon, it being an amendment to strike out the word "Protestant" from article 6 of the Bill of Rights; also to strike out the article entire, and substitute one reported by the Committee on Bill of Rights, inserting the following for that article:

"Every religious sect or denomination demanding themselves equality and as good subjects of the State shall be equally under the protection of the law, and no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law."

An amendment was offered to the substitute report by inserting a provision that the Legislature shall have power to grant all the religious societies within the State the privilege of selecting their own teachers with their own teachers of religion and morality, and no one sect shall ever be compelled to pay toward the support of teachers of any other sect or denomination. This amendment was adopted, and the report of the committee was amended.

Captured and Killed.

NEW FLORENCE (Mo.), Jan. 11.-Isaac Will, who has been imprisoned for some months for an unsuccessful attempt to kill his divorced wife, escaped on the night of December 30th. He made a desperate attempt to gain entrance to his wife's chamber tonight, but was prevented from so doing until she could secure herself in a neighbor's house. When City Marshal Driscoll proceeded to arrest Will he was shot through the heart. The murderer was followed by a posse of citizens and killed.

Death of an ex-congressman. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.-Ex-Congressman O. R. Singleton of Mississippi died at his residence in this city this evening. He was Presidential Elector on the Pierce and King ticket in 1853 and a Representative in several Congresses of the United States, retiring in 1881.

STREET TRIBULATIONS.

Ups and Downs of the Big Roller on Fort Street. Residents along Fort Street who have been wearily watching the paving job from their windows for the past few weeks have been mystified by the sudden up-gurgling of subterranean springs from the bowels of the earth, and the consequent flooding of the streets above. These mysterious fountains, which have so often transformed the well graded street into a marsh and turned back the oncoming flood of bituminous rock covering, are not so much hop-frogged as they are a group of water pipes, but are simply leaks from the water pipes. The pipes are not laid under the ground very deep, and from motives of doubtful economy the contractors, instead of screwing the service cocks into the main, simply tap them in, as a bartender taps a beer keg. The trenches are then filled back with the wet muck taken out of the pipes.

Along comes the contractor's big roller, weighing 15 or 20 tons, and crushes down the earth smooth as it advanced. When it strikes one of these water pipes it will strike around like a boat on a stormy sea, and the ground heaves under it like the waves.

If the pipe beneath does not start, so much the better. The roller then goes back and forth, and the ground heaves and more, till it becomes obvious that it is not fit to lay paving on. The inspector solemnly shakes his head, the contractor admits he won't do his job, and the trench is laboriously reopened and the wet stuff replaced with dry. Thus the progress on the block is delayed a day or more.

But it is not the action of the roller on the soggy ground works on the pipes beneath, and loosens the service pipe out of its flimsy attachment. Then there is trouble. It is singular. The water is forced out of a five-inch pipe, when it boils up to the surface, looks as big as a barrel. Up it comes and away it goes by that beautiful and irresistible law of which Sir Isaac Newton was the first exponent.

The result is obvious. The water goes along down the street and filtrates into all the trenches that have got dry already, and makes them into a swamp. The first one, it soaks the ground along the top of the trench, away into obscurity among the broken rock lying rolled and ready for the bitumen. By the time the water company's employees arrive and shut off the main, everything is softened up and has to be dried up, fixed up and rolled over again.

This is a daily occurrence on Fort Street since the paving has begun above Fourth Street. The little lake which now calmly reposes across Third Street is the offspring of one of these needless breaks. Of course the work will be delayed on that section of the street for perhaps a week, causing loss to the contractors and residents, and vexation to all passers-by.

The remedy is not far to find. The Council should compel the water company to seal the service cocks screwed into the main instead of hammering it. Then they will not be loosened. Furthermore, all trenches excavated by any parties in streets about to be paved should be refilled under the direction of the Superintendent of Streets. Dry earth should be used, well rammed, so that when the job is done it will not slump down the first time a man walks over it.

The new plan in the City Engineer's and Street Superintendent's offices is taking hold of these questions in the right way, and the street contractors are anxious to do what is right for their own sakes. If these further reforms are put into practice it will be time and money saved to the water company, the paving contractors and the city at large.

FIRE PROOF.

THE ABSTRACT AND TITLE INSURANCE BUILDING.

A Structure of Pressed Brick, Terra Cotta Tiles and Iron, with a Minimum of Woodwork—The Temporary Quarters of Three Courts.

Monday morning next the Abstract and Title Insurance Company of Los Angeles will remove from its present cramped quarters on North Spring street to its new and commodious three-story brick building on the corner of New High and Franklin streets.

The company is essentially a home institution. It was organized here in 1886, and the stock is entirely in the hands of local shareholders. Its immediate success forced the company to look out for larger headquarters, and in September, 1887, the contract for the new building was signed and work at once commenced. The contract price for the entire undertaking being over $55,000.

Yesterday a Times reporter was shown through the new building by F. A. Coghlin, the manager of the company. It was found to merit more than a passing mention. Built on solid concrete foundations, with massive pressed brick walls and a most ornamental but substantial exterior, the new edifice rises three stories above the basement. Its depth is over 120 feet by 75 feet front. Special care has been taken in the inward construction as well as with the outward appearance.

All the interior walls are of hollow tile and iron. The staircases are of light iron flights with hardwood treads. Each outside window has a steel shutter, and is attached to the rear outside walls. These precautions thus make the Abstract building the only absolutely fire-proof building in the city.

The building is lighted and heated throughout by gas. No electric lights will be used. The architect has taken particular care with the sanitary arrangements and lavatories on each floor. Independent and entirely safe pipe connections are made with the main sewers; consequently there is not the slightest danger from sewer gas throughout the building.

Each room in the building is finished in grained light oak, giving a particularly clean and refreshing appearance to the apartments.

There is one very commendable feature in the construction of the building, and that is that, as far as possible, every article used has been of local manufacture.

The company itself will occupy the whole of the ground floor for its business. The largest apartment on the floor has been very elegantly fitted up as the working room of the 25 employees of the company. In the front are the business and private offices. No expense has been spared in preparing the entire suite as is most suitable for each respective purpose.

The second and third floors have been leased by the county for the use of three of the Superior Court Judges, who will also be ready for business in the new quarters Monday.

DISAGREED.

The Weyerman Jury, After a Hard Tussle, Dismissed.

After considering the evidence in the case for nearly 24 consecutive hours without arriving at a verdict, the Weyerman jury were called into court at 4:10 yesterday afternoon by Superior Judge Clark. As the prosecution of talesmen filed into court it was very evident that an all-night session had not agreed very well with their constitutions. A more sleepy, tired and disgruntled lot of jurors never came into court to decidedly announce that they had agreed to disagree. Foreman C. J. Morrison was asked by Judge Clark if they had agreed upon a verdict. He emphatically stated that they had not, and that the indications were that it would be impossible for them to do so. Everything was against an agreement. The Court staid out then several of the jurors who seemed the most wide awake, and asked them individually if there was any probability of their agreeing. All replied that it was impossible. They had tried hard to agree, and had wrestled manfully with their obstinate fellows, but without avail. Foreman Morrison stated that since they retired on Friday evening 25 ballots had been taken without an agreement. The Court then scanned the jury again, and evidently seeing that each one was set in his opinion, ordered the jurors discharged and excused from further consideration of the case. It was also ordered by the Court that the case be again placed on the calendar for further hearing. Aubrey Barham, of Barham, Stewart & Co., the defendant's counsel, then moved that the bail of the defendant be reduced under the jury's disagreement and also that he be allowed to remain at liberty under the present bail. Judge Clark said he would refer the matter to Judge Cheney, in whose place he had presided for the trial, and that a decision would be rendered this morning. In the meantime he remanded the defendant into the custody of the Sheriff. As stated in THE TIMES, the jury first stood eight for acquittal and four for manslaughter. Then they changed to six for acquittal and six for manslaughter, the last ballot but one standing so. The final ballot stood eight for acquittal and four for manslaughter. It was ascertained that the jury's disagreement was entirely brought about by the defendant's contradictory statements about his brother's death.

The defendant seemed much relieved at the jury's action, and excitedly put the hands of his three counsel, thanking them warmly for their efforts in his behalf. He told a Times reporter that he was so worried at first that he did not know where he stood, and that the changes in his attorneys had confused him, but that now he was most grateful to his present counsel for their efforts in his behalf.

BOARDER DISAGREE.

Another Opinion to the De Lay Hotel.

A. W. Jurden, in a communication to THE TIMES under date of January 11th, refers to a letter signed A. Carpenter, published recently in THE TIMES, in which the boarding-house run by the De Lay Brothers at the Soldiers' Home, now in construction at Santa Monica, is very highly praised. Mr. Jurden states in his letter that the food furnished by the De Lay Brothers is of very inferior quality and unfit to eat. That the fifty or more carpenters employed there are compelled to eat with the De Lay family, and that those who object are discharged. That complaints were made by all the men, and an improvement in the food promised, but not made. That the charge of $5 a week for board is exorbitant, and that the work at the home if being spun out for the benefit of the boarding-house. Jurden also states that he was the spokesman of the men who complained, and that a few days later he was discharged without just cause.

SAYS HE WAS ROBBED.

Episode of a Drunken Man and His Overland Trip.

For several days past a man who gave the name of Timothy Coghlin has been around the police station complaining that he had been robbed on the train several weeks ago of $4500, and that the man had then attempted to push him off the train. Yesterday morning he again showed up, and showed where his shirt had been cut when the money was taken, as he claimed, and said that the man who did the deed was in Los Angeles, and that he could identify him. He was sent up to Justice Austin, and swore out a complaint against a young man named S. S. Roseman, who, he said, had given him the money to keep. Detective Russell went out with Coghlin, and in a few minutes found Roseman, who was brought to the police station, where he made a statement to Chief Conney. He said that he had come out on the same train with Coghlin, and that he was very drunk, and he and several others had assisted in taking care of him. He knew nothing about any money, and had seen no such amount. Coghlin claimed to have lost Roseman found another man named Lewis, who, with his wife, were passengers on the same train. Lewis denied rating his statement, and saying that Coghlin had given him $5 to keep for him, which he had returned, minus $1.75, which he had spent for his drink. He said that Coghlin was crazy drunk, and that on one occasion he had to threaten the porter of the sleeping car to protect him. Several other parties corroborated Roseman's story, and the Chief was so impressed with his innocence that he refused to lock him up. As soon as Justice Lockwood returned from lunch Roseman was taken before him and he was at once released, the Justice saying there was nothing in the case.

Coghlin had stated to the police that he was the owner of the Turf Club saloon, but this was found to be untrue, and Roseman, who intended to enter suit against him, gave up the idea. The officers are of the opinion that Coghlin is crazy drunk, and, if he was robbed at all, did not know who did it, merely fixing on Roseman because he happened to remember him on the train. Coghlin claimed that he had $4100 in checks and drafts, and two $100 bills sewed up in his shirt.

Notice to Mariners.

Notice is hereby given that a mammoth nun buoy, painted red and marked No. 2, has been substituted for the spar buoy on end of Ft. Point Ledge, entrance to San Francisco Bay.

This buoy is in eight (8) fathoms of water, and about one hundred (100) feet west northwest from the position the spar buoy was in.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Card from John Hall.

LOS ANGELES (74 North Main street), Jan. 11.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] Kindly permit me, through your valuable columns, to repudiate the charge of perjury against me, mentioned in yesterday's TIMES, viz: If I made any mistake (and I am not aware that I did) in entering a timber-culture claim, I most certainly cannot be taken from misrepresentations of the lines of said lands as explained to me on the spot by a person who claimed to know the lines of every inch of land in the Palomas mining district.

When the case is heard on the 19th inst. I shall have no difficulty in proving my innocence, and of showing that the outrage of such a fearful charge against me was not concocted by young Martinez, but by the promptings of a slimy villain, whose testimony in a recent trial in this State (I am informed) was stricken out in open court as unworthy of belief, inasmuch as he was proved to be a convicted felon and a notorious liar.

I trust the public will suspend prejudice until the trial, when the malicious spite will be made fully manifest.

Respectfully, JOHN HALL.

Who is Your Best Friend?

Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink, wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will do you no harm. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with heartburn, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

Attention!

CHEAP LAND! — GOOD LAND!

Dr. E. T. Barber of Lancaster, Antelope Valley, Los Angeles county, Cal., offers 2,000 acres of land for sale, in tracts of 20 acres and upwards, at $5 to $50 per acre, with liberal terms and title guaranteed.

This valley has raised the greatest wheat of the world; sugar beets at the rate of 215 tons to the acre; barley hay, three tons; eight crops of alfalfa in one year; per acre, seven inches in diameter, and is competent to compete with Spain for raisins and France for champagne.

All this land offered can be covered with mountain water, and has good surface and artesian water, and much of it has a sub-irrigation.

The railroad facilities are good; the Southern Pacific railroad now crosses it, and three other great railroads are expected to do so in the near future.

Climate good, no cyclones, blizzards, fogs or malarial.

Antelope Valley is the hope of the poor, a boon to men of moderate means, and a banana to keen-sighted business men.

Send for map and description.

THE TIMES ANNUAL.

THE TIMES Annual for 1889 is now on sale to the trade and the general public. It may be purchased from the newsboys, at the bookstores, or singly and in quantities at the Times office.

It is a 56-page publication, equivalent in bulk of contents to a 200-page book, chock full of valuable and interesting matter. It is especially adapted for sending to friends at a distance, who desire information regarding this section, its compilation having been undertaken with special reference to this purpose. The sending of one copy is better than the writing of one hundred letters. It contains a carefully prepared statement of Southern California's many advantages and few drawbacks, together with a complete exposition of our resources.

Following are the prices of the Annual:

Single copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid).....$ .15
2 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid).....$ .25
10 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid).....$ 1.00
25 copies (in bulk).....$ 2.50
100 copies (in bulk).....$ 8.00
1000 copies (in bulk).....$ 80.00

These prices are low, hardly covering the cost of producing the paper.

The plates and matrices for the Annual are all intact, ready for the printing of any number of copies that may be called for. We hope to have drafts made upon us for thousands of these papers.

City subscribers who would like to show their appreciation of the faithful carriers who have served them through rain and shine (principally shine) during the 366 days of the old year, have an opportunity to do so, to a slight extent, by purchasing of them 10, 25 or 50 copies of the Annual—ready today—thus giving them the benefit of the profit on the paper.

The rate of postage on THE TIMES Annual is two cents for each copy. This can be saved by ordering through the office which pays on the matter by the pound.

To Job Printers and Publishers.

We have a large quantity of news print (roll paper) which we will cut to order very cheap.

Also, 134 reams of flat news print, size 30x44, and 13 reams, size 35x47, which we want to sell.

POWER PRESS FOR SALE.

A two-revolution Campbell book and newspaper press, size of bed, 31x64, in good order and condition, of satisfactory speed; suitable for any work. Will be sold at a bargain.

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

NEW HAMPSHIRE is one of the few States whose organic law discriminates in favor of the Protestant religion. At a constitutional convention in that State, yesterday, it was decided to recommend the abolition of this relic of Puritanism.

FURTHER reflections on the subject of the cost of maintaining the county roads, referred to in yesterday's TIMES, only deepens the feeling of wonder as to what can have been done with the $100,000, or thereabouts, which is shown to have been spent on the roads during the past year. Let us have a little more light on the subject.

THERE appears to be a growing sentiment among the taxpayers of the city against any system of sewage farming in this vicinity, and in favor of an outfall sewer to the ocean. Whether right or wrong, reasonable or otherwise, a great many people have a strong prejudice against living in the vicinity or to leeward of sewage works.

We are pleased to note that our exchanges are almost unanimous in agreeing with the views expressed by THE TIMES, to the effect that the only obstacle in the way of obtaining plenty of white labor for our orchards and vineyards is the manner in which such help is usually treated by the fruit growers. The doctors being all agreed upon the character of the malady, there should not be much difficulty about finding a remedy.

A CORRESPONDENT—a sanitary engineer—writes to us as follows in reference to the indorsement by the Sewerage Committee of the West sewerage system:

I cannot in all my experience see why it is that Los Angeles should, in the present state of its finances, venture on an experiment for an experiment it is. Your Sewerage Committee went to investigate the systems of the work shops of the Pullman Car Company and Atlantic City. Los Angeles has the best natural drainage of any city that I know, and to commence anything so foolish as to build a sewerage system is to begin to do a little at a time, and have it permanent and according to the growth of the city, so that what is done today will be the tomorrow.

Senator Stanford at Work.

THE TIMES is not among those who make a practice of beslobbering Senator Stanford, or the corporation which he represents, with fulsome flattery, but we are free to admit that the Senator possesses some admirable qualities, which would doubtless have enabled him to attain a position in the world, even had he not been so fortunate as to find a chance of building a Pacific railroad with the money of a liberal government. Among the Senator's good qualities is a steady, business-like application to whatever enterprise he has in hand, which would do credit to a young man starting in life.

Just now, Mr. Stanford is engaged in the task of impressing his fellow-Senators with the importance of the California fruit industry. For this purpose, he keeps the ante-room of the Senate well supplied, from day to day, with a choice variety of California fruits, such as grapes, Riverside oranges and raisins. There is considerable truth in the old saying, that the best way to a man's heart is through his stomach, and perhaps the railroad Senator had this saying in view when he resolved to keep the framers of the Republican tariff bill well supplied with ocular and digestible proofs of the superior character of those of our products which seek protection from foreign cheap labor.

While Senator Stanford is engaged in looking after the interests of the fruit raisers of the Pacific Coast, he is not unmindful of the beet sugar producers, and unless a spirit of liberal compromise is developed by those who want to cut off the duty on sugar, there will be no tariff bill passed by the Senate at this session, or at least it will not be passed if Senator Stanford can help it. He believes the beet sugar can be produced as cheaply, if not more so, than the product of cane. He claims for it absolute purity, in combination with a larger percentage of saccharine matter than in cane sugar, and he fully expects to see the day when the beet sugar of California is sold in the eastern market at 4 cents per pound.

The Nicaragua Canal.

A short time ago we noted the fact that Congress had granted to a Vermont company a charter for the construction of an interoceanic canal across Nicaragua. This is essentially an American project, and as such has aroused much interest in this country.

The route is not a new or half-explored one. Its merits have been known to American engineers and naval officers for years. Within the past twelve months it has been surveyed with the utmost care and accuracy by a fully-equipped American expedition. The line for the canal to follow has all been marked out, and the cost of the work closely estimated. Everything is now ready for actual excavation.

The enterprise is a private one. All that is asked from the Government is the sanction of a national charter, which distinctly specifies that the United States is not to be held to a financial responsibility for the company. An understanding has been reached with the authorities of Nicaragua and Costa Rica which guarantees the neutrality of the canal in peace or war. The beneficial effects of this water way on the political and commercial interests of the United States cannot easily be exaggerated. There is little doubt about the successful completion of the work. In the Nicaragua route Nature has already, in the San Juan River and Lake Nicaragua, prepared a way which needs only to be enlarged and deepened.

THE Chicago Times, in a recent issue, had an editorial in which the asserted reaction in California against the Chinese Exclusion Bill is reviewed at considerable length. Here is the conclusion which the Times arrives at on the subject:

It is idle to ask for repeal. The question has been settled for a generation at least. This agitation, commenced in California for the exclusion of the Chinese, has swept over the country, compelling the surrender of all political parties, and produced sweeping prohibitory legislation unanimously passed. For good or ill the question ceases to be within the grasp of the inhabitants of the Pacific States. The work will not be undone in this generation. There is no natural increase to the Chinese population of the coast, the family relation existing among them to any appreciable extent. Unrecruited from without, depleted by death and departures, the present Mongolian colonies on the coast will speedily disappear. Within fifteen years the place that knew the Mongolian will know him no more forever, unless in another generation America shall again open its ports to John.

It is rumored that the visit of a prominent and very active Democratic member of the City Council to the northern part of the State is not unconnected with legislative action on our charter, also that the Democrats are waging a quiet, but very aggressive war on that instrument. We trust that this report is not correct, but it will do no harm to remind those persons who are hostile to the charter that they are watched, and that any underhand efforts on their part to defeat the will of a large majority of the voters of Los Angeles will be duly made note of, and preserved for future reference.

REFERRING to the projects introduced, or about to be introduced, in the Legislature for county division, the Colusa Herald is led somewhat sarcastically to remark:

Glenn county (?) paved the way two years ago, and now Los Angeles is to be divided. Alameda is to be twain and Alpine is to be added to Mono. No sensible man in any of these counties is in favor of any of these measures. There is no earthly reason for the division of either Colusa, Los Angeles or Alameda, and every citizen in Alpine is opposed to its losing its existence. But, Lord bless you, Buckley has to be fed, Higgins has to live, and the legislators cannot patronize Ned Foster's Sacramento symposium if more shekels do not enrich their pockets than flow from the State coffers the way of salaries. So wage the world. Money rules the roost, and honesty is at a discount.

A FRUIT grower from away up in Lassen county writes approvingly to THE TIMES on the recent editorial which appeared in these columns regarding Chinese labor and fruit raising. This fruit raiser says he can get all the white labor he wants at reasonable prices. What chiefly troubles him and his fellow horticulturists in the northern section is the high railroad freights and charges of commission merchants, owing to which he states that large quantities of fruit go to waste every year, because it does not pay to ship it. Our correspondent thinks that the railroads should be more liberal in the terms they offer to fruit shippers. In this part of the State we have railroad competition, and consequently little to complain of in the way of freights. There is no doubt that railroads work to their own interest, as well as that of the fruit growers, in putting freights on fruit as low as possible, and so building up the horticultural industry of the State.

We notice from a Sacramento Journal that E. W. Maslin, who started for the East about two months ago to lecture on the advantages of Northern California, writes from Minnesota, giving a rather doleful account of his work. He has opened a bureau of information in St. Paul, but says he finds that the people of the northwest take little interest in California, and is kind enough to attribute this largely to the asserted disgust of many of them with operations in Los Angeles and with the experiences of their friends in this locality. To these people, he says, the name of California possesses no charm, and it is hard to induce them to listen, much less to consent to come to the Coast once more. If we mistake not, Mr. Maslin was here for some time during the boom as an emissary from the northern citrus belt, during which time he worked hard to please his employers, and retain his job, by lying about this section. He still seems to be engaged in the same questionable line of business.

An argument in favor of restriction of immigration may be found in the dastardly crime committed in Washington Territory by an Italian, on an unfortunate Bohemian miner and his family. Because he had been arrested and imprisoned for a criminal assault on his friend's wife, this fiend deliberately blew up the miner's house with a bomb, tearing the man, his wife and child to pieces. These depraved off-scourings of effete Europe appear to take as naturally to dynamite as a fish takes to water. It is high time that we pass a law compelling Europe to keep its scum at home. We have too much of it here already—more than is good for us.

Now that the Southern Pacific has obtained permission from the City Council to utilize its ardently-sought Pine-street route, it is said that the company may, after all, conclude to go through the Brislwater tract. Possibly the visit of a number of indignant taxpayers to the company's office, and the intimation that, in case the company persisted in its course, said taxpayers would use all their influence to divert business to the rival line, may have had something to do with this asserted change of mind on the part of the high and mighty Kentucky corporation.

BUCKLEY and his followers are said to be very angry with "Steve" White. Finding that White could down Buckley in the fight for the Presidency, if the matter was carried to a vote, the great San Francisco boss refrained from showing his weakness, and surrendered with the best possible grace, having to consent to let White name the committees.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE OPERA-HOUSE—Lydia Thompson and her pretty girls and her three comedians appeared last night for the first time in Columbus. The play is a burlesque of the usual type, and gives plenty of opportunity for the full exercise of the peculiar graces and gyrations of this special troupe, in which the dancing and the comedians are the chief elements of attraction.

Columbus will be given tonight, closing the engagement of this company. Next week Leavitt's.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE—The Azalia Club gave its final evening performance to a very small house last night, and will conclude with a matinee today.

They surely possess the courage of their convictions, too strongly to be discouraged by the small attendance they have had outside their own friends.

Amateurs would do well to learn that with a perfect host of tried and proven players of all kinds and suited to all talents, already for the learning, it is the greatest folly to appear in an amateur play, even if fairly good, as such things go. An amateur play and amateur company produce a consumption not desirably to be wished for. Mr. George Harmon, who plays "Sharpe," is far and away the best actor in this little troupe, and Miss Mosley, as Lucy Gray, shows in her play a natural acting the making of a good actress. Mrs. Beane, the only semi-professional of them all, is so pronounced in every direction, except in the delivery of her lines, which are given with a pleasing fullness, sweetness and distinction.

The club will repeat its performance tonight and at the matinee tomorrow.

Next week Ben and Ideline Cotton.

Probably insane.

St. Louis, Jan. 11.—Henry Kruse, the man who shot Ward McManis, a prominent St. Louis capitalist, yesterday, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head in a cheap lodging-house. Kruse was probably insane on account of failure to secure money with which to push his oil monopoly.

The Senate Nearly Through with the Tariff Bill—More Postmasters Nominated—San Luis Obispo's Modest Request—Secretary Vilas Acts as an Arbitrator.

By Telegram to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] In April, 1885, the President appointed William A. Vincent Chief Justice of the Territory of New Mexico, and in November of the same year he was removed. The Judge came to Washington, where he claimed that the charges against him were the appointment of Stephen W. Dorsey to be jury commissioner. The Judge wrote a long letter to the President, complaining of the injustice done him, and the latter has now taken action in the matter, as the subjoined correspondence will show:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8, 1889.

Hon. William A. Vincent—DEAR SIR: I have always said to my friends, and to you, that your removal from the office of Judge for the Territory of New Mexico did not in the least imply any charge or conviction of dishonesty, incapacity or judicial misconduct. In the condition of affairs at that time, I deemed it my duty to promptly pursue a course so unfortunate for you, and which was adopted by me upon the best and most reliable information available to me, and your motives and purposes. My action was unfairly harsh, but I thought it was justified. Often since that time, as all the facts of the incident have been made known to me, and as I reflected upon your otherwise unexceptional judicial career so far as it had come to my knowledge, I have been impressed by the representations of your friends that your removal has subjected you to a suspicion which was unjust and unwarranted. So far as I am concerned, notwithstanding all that has passed, I am at this time willing to express my confidence in your ability and uprightness. There is now a vacancy in the Chief Justiceship of Montana. So far as regards the position of Chief Justice of the Territory of New Mexico, I should be entirely willing to see you in that place. I write to ask you, therefore, whether, in case I should think it well to do so, I am at liberty to submit your name to the Senate for that position. I make this proposition with reservation for reasons not in the least connected with your personal qualifications, and I shall be glad to know your views upon the subject as soon as possible.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

To this Vincent today replied as follows:

Sir: Your letter of the 8th inst., regarding me the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Montana, reached me day before yesterday, and has received my careful consideration. I am grateful for this expression of your confidence and esteem, and accept the tender of this important office as a complete vindication of my course while Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico. I have no objection to my name being taken in the exercise of judicial discretion after the utmost deliberation, and I am prepared to accept the condition of affairs in Colfax county at that time, was an absolute necessity in order to restore peace and good order. ## PACIFIC COAST

Caucus of Republicans at Sacramento.

They Will Ask No Favors of the Majority in the Assembly.

Udell Released from Custody on Habeas Corpus.

The Engineers' Grievance Against the Southern Pacific Company Speedily Settled—Close of the Sullivan-Banks Election Contest—Heavy Sale of Smuggled Opium.

By Telegram to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] At a caucus of Republican Assemblymen which met immediately after the adjournment of the Assembly today, it was decided that the Republicans should not interfere in Democratic appointments, nor ask favors of the Democratic Speaker in the way of representation in the committee.

Many members left for San Francisco this afternoon.

Senate.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—At the session of the Senate this morning, Wilson of San Francisco introduced a bill, under suspension of rules, providing for the meeting of Presidential Electors on Monday next at Sacramento at 2 o'clock. The bill was passed.

The Governor presented a memorial from the Fruit Growers' convention, asking for an appropriation in the interest of horticulture.

A petition was presented asking that a portion of Eldorado county be added to Amador.

Bills were introduced as follows: For the cremation of human bodies; for registration of births, deaths and marriages; for protection against contagious diseases; relating to trial of causes for divorce; regulating the use and construction of passenger elevators.

President White announced the following Senate committee:

Judiciary—Mr. Jones, chairman; Messrs. Yell, Goucher, Wilson, Crandall, Moffitt, McGowan, Cammilleri, Hancock, Sprague, Mr. White, and Mr. Goucher.

Elections—Mr. Yell, chairman; Messrs. Crandall, Campbell, De Long, Pender, Williams, and Mr. Goucher.

The Senate adjourned till Monday.

Assembly.

In the Assembly this morning it was resolved that all bills must be printed before read, or referred to committee.

The Senate transmitted the bill for a meeting of the Presidential Electors, and under suspension of the rules, it was passed.

Ewing of San Francisco offered a resolution instructing the Comptroller to draw warrants for temporary officers for salaries from January 7th to January 14th.

Storke of Santa Barbara spoke against the measure, saying that his conscience would not permit him to vote seven days' salary for two days' work.

The resolution was adopted.

SPEEDILY SETTLED.

The Engineers' Trouble with the Southern Pacific Ended.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] General Manager Towne of the Southern Pacific Company stated today that the difficulty between the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Master Mechanic Ryan of the Atlantic division of the Southern Pacific had been adjusted after a conference with Chief Arthur and his committee, and on terms satisfactory to the company and the engineers. He would not state, however, whether or not Ryan would be retained in the company's employ. Chief Arthur was somewhat reticent, saying that the trouble had been satisfactorily settled.

"The engineers had decided," he said, "to withdraw their request for Ryan's removal, but whether he will be retained or not is for the railroad authorities to decide. They have promised us that their men shall be properly treated and their rights upheld, and I believe they will keep their faith with us."

When asked as to the outlook for the year, Chief Arthur stated that everything was peaceable, and he sees no signs of trouble anywhere.

THE UDELL CASE.

What is Said at Stockton—Udell Released.

STOCKTON, Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Mrs. Emma Udell, nee Edwards, has two brothers here. Both say they used no influence to make Alva Udell write a letter to a Stockton paper, as charged by Mrs. Udell at Los Angeles. They have perfect faith in Udell and confidence in his ability to fight the case, and leave it to his judgment.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—Alva Udell, arrested Wednesday night on a charge of bigamy, was released today on a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that the complaint was not properly certified to by the Los Angeles district.

How to Purify the Ballot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The joint committee of the Democratic and Republican county committees, appointed some four weeks ago to confer as to the best legislative method to stop election frauds, met in the Registrar's office today. Registrar Smiley was present. All agreed that a non-partisan board of election of commissioners is what is needed, but the committee could not agree how this was to be accomplished. It was agreed to appoint a committee, consisting of Messrs. Harris, Jacobs and Popper, to correspond with the legislators at Sacramento and obtain legal advice as to whether it will be necessary to have general legislation on the subject or special legislation concerning San Francisco alone.

Smuggled Opium Seized.

PORT TOWNSEND (Wash.), Jan. 11.—Special Treasury Agent James McHale last night seized at the mouth of Point Discovery Bay about four hundred pounds of refined opium, valued at $200,000, which was being smuggled from British Columbia on the British ship Emerald.

Twelve Chinese provided with certificates entitling them to return to Victoria were also on the ship.

The Sullivan-Banks Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The taking of testimony in the Sullivan-Banks Senatorial contest, was closed today. Over eighty witnesses were examined and about a thousand pages of testimony taken.

The Senatorial Committee on Elections will now consider the case and determine whether or not fraud and intimidation were exercised by the Republicans in the Twenty-first District.

Beaten and Mobbed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—John Weirs, a recent arrival from Cincinnati, who had been employed some time in a winery at Mountain View, was brought into the receiving hospital early this morning suffering from a wound on the head. He said he had been attacked on the street and robbed of $200 which he had with him.

Firing the Railroad.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—The widow and infant of James W. Cogrove, a brakeman who was killed in the accident near Tamara Station last March, have commenced suit against the railroad company for $50,000 damages.

Arrested for Litter.

TACOMA (Wash.), Jan. 11.—R. F. Redhaugh, publisher of the Ledger, was arrested today on a charge of criminal litter.

THE BIGELOW DIVORCE.

A Bill That Looks Bad for the Plaintiff.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] Judge Lawler today rendered a decision in favor of Attorney George A. Knight in the controversy between him and Attorney Gordon & Young. The trouble grew out of the divorce case of Mary B. Bigelow against Windsor D. Bigelow, in which plaintiff was granted a divorce on the grounds of adultery, and was awarded $100 a month alimony. Knight recently filed affidavits accusing Gordon & Young of unprofessional conduct in having secured judgment for alimony when they had agreed with him not to ask for either alimony or costs if no defense was entered. Gordon & Young stated that they made no such agreement, but Judge Lawler decided that the preponderance of evidence was in Knight's favor.

Concerning the petition to strike from the decree the part relating to alimony, the Court expressed doubt as to its power to do so, but intimated that, if the case came up on it, the Court might set aside the whole judgment. This applies to the affidavits filed by Knight that Bigelow was made intoxicated, and had been placed in a compromising position by the collusion, it is intimated, of Mrs. Bigelow's relatives.

CYCLONE VICTIMS.

Latest Estimates of the Loss of Life.

READING (Pa.), Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] No more bodies have been since found in the ruins of the silk mill, and it is believed all have been recovered. Several reported yesterday as killed have been found safe.

The following is the correct list of the dead: Emma Lester, John Reber, Eva Leeda, Laura Keshner, Sallie Harner, Tillie Grow, Mary Fitzpatrick, Sallie Faust, Henry S. Crocker, Amelia Christman, Sallie C. Beckel, Ella Reidmeyer, Tillie E. Schaeffer, Sallie Schaeffer, Barbara A. Schaeffer, Sarah ex-Bigelow, William Snyder, Sophia F. Winkelman.

THE PITTSBURGH VICTIMS.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—Up to 10 o'clock this morning the mangled remains of 19 persons had been taken from the ruins of the buildings wrecked in Wednesday's storm. Six others are missing. Of the injured, three have died since removal to the hospitals, and four others are in a critical condition. The remaining 22 are doing well. During the night the bodies of Charles McKewen and two unknown workmen were recovered, and at daylight the remains of the venerable Rev. Dr. Reed were found. Dr. Reed was 89 years old, and a prominent resident of Allegheny City.

GENEROUS AID.

PUEBLO (Colo.), Jan. 11.—The Philadelphia smelter, Pueblo smelter and Colorado smelter of this city have each donated a 50-cent silver brick to be sold by the stock exchanges of the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh for the benefit of the cyclone victims. The bricks will be shipped by ship by Monday evening, and will be immediately forwarded by the smelters to their destinations.

THE INTERSTATE ACT.

Report on Its Workings by the Commissioners.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—[By the Associated Press.] In the second annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, set out side of the roads affected by ocean competition between the Atlantic and Pacific, the long and short haul clause has been fairly well obeyed. The commission insists that it has no evidence, in spite of railroad protests, that the law has been otherwise than beneficial to the roads. The abolishing of unjust discriminations, no matter how it affected the earnings, was for common justice and public morals. The losses of 1888 were not due to the act. One cause of the "Q" strike, New and parallel lines materially injured the net revenues, and the rate wars were very serious. They, however, were not the result of the act. Amendments to the law dealing with unearned dividends, cut rates and commissions were proposed.

Wellington Miners Locked Out.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 11.—The Pioneer Press's Victoria (B. C.) special says: The Wellington coal mine difficulty assumed a serious aspect today. The miners held a meeting last night and decided not to return to work. A committee visited Mr. Dumeur yesterday, and he offered to take back all except the ringleaders. Upon receiving information of their decision this evening the miners to leave the company's houses immediately. Notices will be served in the morning. As some 300 miners are affected the evictions can hardly be effected without trouble. The general opinion is that the men acted hastily.

A Wisconsin Tragedy.

STEVENS POINT (Wis.), Jan. 11.—Dr. O. C. Meyer, aged 34, a well-known physician of this city, was shot and instantly killed on the street this afternoon by Philip Griffith, his father-in-law. On December 10th the doctor's wife died from the effects of a pistol shot, which, he claimed, was fired by her own hand. Circumstantial evidence warrants the coroner's jury in not bringing in a verdict of suicide, but the deed was not charged to any person. The parents and brother of Mrs. Meyer stoutly maintained that she did not commit suicide, and the father has been endeavoring since to secure a warrant for the doctor's arrest, but without avail. Today's tragedy is the outcome.

A Valuable Collection.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Appleton Morgan, president of the New York Shakespeare Society, says: "I have just learned that the late Mr. Halliwell Phillips left behind him an immense collection of book cuts of Elizabethan and Shakespearean devices, maps, plans, charts and ornaments, which he had collected in the course of thirty years' research, to the Shakespeare Society of New York."

How They Fine in Brazil.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The World says: William K. Grace, ex-Mayor, and the representatives in Paris of Sears & Co., have got into trouble with the Brazilian Government. Sears & Co. and their managing clerk, Edward Math, have been adjudged guilty of evading payment of export duty on rubber, and have been fined about $150,000.

The West Virginia Deadlock.

CHARLESTON (W. Va.), Jan. 11.—The deadlock in the Senate continues. The Republicans say they will not allow to be broken until the Democrats abandon the question now in the courts and until the contests are settled. The House cannot work until the Senate organizes.

Contract Signed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—The contract between the Oregon Improvement Company and Godall, Perkins & Co., by which the latter are to retain the agency of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, was signed today.

A Crossing Effectuated.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 11.—The crossing at Ft. Whyte, where the extension of the Northern Pacific road crosses the Canadian Pacific, has been effected.

Pupils Rotten-Egged.

TRIO (N. Y.), Jan. 11.—At a sparring exhibition last night between Kilrain and Mitchell rotten eggs were thrown at the principals from the gallery.

A Dentist's Suicide.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—J. B. Morrison, a prominent dentist, suicided today. Cause, dyspepsia.

Gaudaur's Challenge Accepted.

TORONTO, Jan. 11.—William O'Connor has accepted Gaudaur's challenge to row at San Francisco about March last.

Senator Harris Will Serve Again.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.), Jan. 11.—The Democratic members of the Legislature in caucus tonight recommended Senator Harris.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Orange and Vicinity.

ORANGE, Jan. 8.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Schools are in session again.

Strangers are plenty and very welcome.

Hotels are doing a good business, and visitors say there are no more cheerful home-like places of entertainment in the country than they find in Orange.

Ranchers, business men and citizens generally, have a contented, cheerful look, which indicates encouraging prospects ahead.

Good cows are scarce and hard to get. First-class home-made butter is held at a premium, and good rich milk always finds ready sale. Small dairies would be paying investments.

Improvements are going on all the time. One of the latest and most convenient is the extending of the street-car line up to the platform of the Santa Fe depot.

Miss Eunice Dow and little son of Banning are visiting at her father's, Mr. Jacob Weber, of this place. Mrs. Sibley from Lugonia is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Harle Clark.

The second silver medal prize contest at Villa Park took place Saturday, the 5th. Miss Edith Marsh was the successful competitor. The speaking which was suitably interspersed with good music, was very fine, and the whole entertainment of a high order, and, though free, was well worth a four-bit admission fee.

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. Gordon Granger Post, had a very pleasant as well as profitable basket social on Tuesday, the 7th. The proceeds are to go for the purchase of an organ.

The Southern Pacific Railroad is building a section-house at McPherson. A good depot will not be erected very soon at the same place.

Spraying orange trees is now in order, and many orchardists are quite confident that the scale bug will yet be subdued.

McPherson has an express agent at the railroad office, hence it is not necessary to carry packages to Orange for expressing.

This town and also El Modena receive mail now direct from Los Angeles on the evening train, and the mail leaves on the morning train instead of at noon, as heretofore. J. A. F.

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.

The Victim of Thursday's Runaway on Second Street.

Stevens, the man so badly injured by the running away of his team at the corner of Second and Fort streets, Thursday afternoon, died at the police station yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. He was unconscious up to the hour of his death, and never spoke from the time he was injured, except to tell his name. It was learned yesterday that he was an Old Fellow, and came from White River Junction. He had been working for Palmer, the contractor, for several weeks past, and slept in the stable on Aliso street, where his trunk was found and removed to police headquarters. He does not appear to have any friends or relatives in this city, as he was a man who talked but little, and made but few acquaintances. As soon as the man died Coroner Meredith was notified, and the body was removed to Orr & Suteb's, where the trunk will be held until the coroner will then be opened, when it is expected that letters and papers will be found which will throw some light on his past life.

He Is an Architect.

In the Superior Court yesterday the examination of John Hall, arrested for perjury alleged to have been committed in some Government land transactions, was set for tomorrow week. Through a typographical error in Friday's Times, Hall's occupation was given as "orchardist," and a procession of John Hall called yesterday at the Times office to explain their business standing and state that they were the John Hall arrested.

Pure John Hall is an architect, and not an orchardist.

Fatal Quarrel Between Doctors.

HOLDEN (Mo.), Jan. 11.—Two physicians of this place, Drs. Pitzer and Starke, quarreled in a store last night over an old dispute. Starke whipped out a revolver and fired three shots, two of which struck and killed Pitzer. The other seriously wounded a bystander.

The Fever-stricken Yantic.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The United States steamer Yantic was inspected this morning. Lieut. Miles is in a very precarious condition. Cadet Bristol and Yerman Keller are much improved. The rest of the crew are well.

Plymouth Church in Trouble.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The Post says: "The financial affairs of Plymouth Church are in a critical condition. Indications are that the church may be great difficulty in meeting current expenses. Last year the expenditures exceeded the receipts $3000."

Reorganized Saints.

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.), Jan. 11.—At a meeting held last night arrangements were made for a world's conference on April 9th of the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints. The attendance is expected from all parts of the world to number 300.

Town Burned.

MEMPHIS (Tenn.), Jan. 11.—The principal portion of Leland, Miss., was burned today. The loss is unknown.

The Weather.

SIGNAL OFFICE, LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—At 5:07 a.m. the thermometer registered 51; at 5:07 p.m., 56. Barometer for corresponding periods, 30.01, 29.96. Maximum temperature, 65; minimum temperature, 49. Rainfall past 24 hours, inappreciable. Weather cloudy.

INDICATIONS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Indications for 24 hours: For California, fair weather in Northern California, local rains in Southern California.

A New York lawyer agreed to tell the truth for four years if Harrison was elected. He's been obliged to give up his law practice.—[Yonkers Statesman.]

California Waukesha!

PURE WATER!

The CORONADO BEACH COMPANY

Made a very valuable and important discovery while investigating the water supply of the Otay Valley, San Diego county. They came upon a series of living springs the water of which has similar properties to the celebrated

WAUKESHA WATER.

Clear, sparkling, agreeable to the eye and refreshing to the taste; one spring already yields 5,000,000 gallons per day, and other springs can, by development, be made to yield equal quantities.

This water has been piped to South San Diego, Coronado Heights, and Coronado Beach, and is now being sold in most satisfaction and favorable results.

AN ANALYSIS

Made of this late discovery by the celebrated chemist, C. Gilbert Wheeler of Chicago, shows that it is exceptionally pure, and is possessed of highly medicinal qualities, which act as directly and favorably on all kidney troubles as

THE WAUKESHA WATER.

The above is fully borne out by the result of its use for several months among the guests of the Hotel del Coronado. Many severe cases of kidney disease among elderly people have been greatly improved, and others cured.

For sale by WOOD & LEITCH, Druggists, Pasadena; also at the Pharmacy, Raymond, and by THOMAS & O., Druggists, Downey block, Los Angeles.

Real Estate.

SIMI RANCHO!

Cheap Lands. Good Lands. Prices

and Terms to Encourage Settlers.

So much has been said and written about the high prices for ordinary farming and fruit land in Southern California that many Eastern people think that no good land can be had at less than $200 per acre in any good locality. But if you will call at the headquarters of Simi Land and Water Company you will find that you can buy well watered stock ranges at $5 to $10 per acre, and every one of these ranges contains more or less good farming land. You can buy first-class valley lands for $20 to $25 per acre, and small tracts of 10, 20 or 40 acres, at from $100 to $150 per acre. Colonies who want from 1000 to 5000 acres of good land, at about the same price. This company owns nothing for boom, but has no inflated prices for the lands. We own nearly 100,000 acres, and have a perfect and undisputed title. The object is that the good lands, to actual settlers, at prices within reach of any who can buy land at all, and on terms which will enable men of moderate means to acquire homes in an attractive and healthful part of Southern California. We do not claim to have the best land in the country, but we do claim to offer better land and better terms, and on easier terms of payment than any other place that has been brought to our notice. It will cost you nothing but a postal card to get detailed information about these lands. If you want a farm or a stock range write or call at 10 West First street, Los Angeles, and ask about the Simi ranch.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Presiding Justice Lockwood yesterday fined J. Williams, an able-bodied man, $30 for soliciting alms on the streets.

Barney Dougherty, who has been in the community on Alameda street a few evenings ago, was mulcted $30 for his fun yesterday.

John Swanson was arrested on Marchant street yesterday afternoon and locked up on a charge of assault. Miller was the arresting officer.

The Illinois Association meets this evening at Masonic Hall, on Spring street, for another social and entertainment, commencing at 7:30.

S. C. Pettit pleaded guilty yesterday before Presiding Justice Lockwood to a charge of petty larceny for stealing a few carpenter's tools and was assessed $5.

There is some uneasiness at the jail in regard to the condition of the side retaining wall. It is in bad condition, and it is feared that it could not stand another rain.

Thomas White and John Morris, for robbery, and R. D. Manning and J. J. Ginnocchio, for burglary, were yesterday committed to the County Jail to await trial.

The examination of Thomas White and John Doe, alias "Chicago Fatty," arrested on a charge of robbery for "rolling a drunk," has been set for Monday next by Presiding Justice Lockwood.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office for Mrs. J. D. Smyth, Louis K. Mather, M. D. Arme, J. B. Farlow, W. W. Howard, H. G. Ginnocchio, W. B. Anderson, William Baird.

Three "rags" were brought in from Pasadena yesterday and two from Pomona to serve terms in the County Jail. Four petty larcenists (orange thieves) were also brought in from Pomona and one from Orange.

In searching a man at the County Jail yesterday, after the constables had previously gone through him, a big knife and razor were found. This is the second time this has occurred since Jailer Darby took charge.

Richard Manning and J. J. Ginnocchio, charged with burglary for breaking into a United Pacific freight car January 4th, were examined by Justice Savage yesterday, and ordered held to answer in $500 bonds each.

Hippolyte Goryon, arrested by the United States authorities for smuggling cigars across the Mexican border at San Diego, pleaded not guilty yesterday before Judge Ross, and will come up for trial in court on February 18th.

Mr. Cohn of the Vienna bakery complained at the police station that he had been greatly annoyed by a waiter hanging about his place named James Kinney, who was very abusive and used insulting language in the hearing of his patrons. The police promised to attend to the matter.

The new school building at Hyde Park, costing $4000, was completed and occupied for school Monday morning. One room was furnished with every convenience for church purposes. Sunday school of 45 members organized. There will be regular preaching services each Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Detectives Glass and Metzler yesterday recovered an imitation leather valise containing a lot of wearing apparel, tin types, prayer book, marked "James J. Quile, Los Angeles, November 6, 1887," and an army discharge made out in the name of John T. Williams. The valise is at the station, and the owner can have the same by calling and proving his property.

The people along the Pine-street route are still trying to convince the Southern Pacific people that it is to their interest to take the offer made them by the Briawater representative. It is believed that now that the railroad people are in a position to protect themselves, an arrangement can be made by which route No. 4 will be taken, and San Pedro street cleared of the tracks.

Mr. Kuhrt stated at the Mayor's office yesterday that he had been told that two of the men on the police force had only been in the city two months, having come up from San Diego. In making application, all the men have to swear that they have been residents of the city for at least one year. He said that he proposed to investigate the matter, and if there were any on the force who had not complied with that provision he would ask for their removal.

A buggy came very near being wrecked yesterday at the corner of Temple and Fort streets about 12 o'clock. The horse became frightened at the cable cars and ran away, climbing up over a wagon which stood in the way, and but for the breaking of the harness some one would have been hurt, as the dummy was wedged up against the vehicle. As it was a broken harness was the full extent of the damage, although a stranger in the wagon was badly frightened.

The beet sugar factory project is beginning to assume some definite shape. D. Freeman went to San Francisco a day or two ago to make a contract with the beet factory at Centennial ranch, and will guarantee to put in 5000 acres in beets at once. Several of the tenants on the Nadeau place also say that if Special will pay anything like the price he says he will, they will also put in 1000 acres in beets. Several local capitalists have also signified their willingness to take stock in the concern as soon as it is established.

Coroner Meredith yesterday received a telephone message from Whittier asking him to come to that place and hold an inquest. No particulars were given at the time, but Mr. Meredith afterward investigated the case and found that it was a man who had died of consumption, when he instructed the proper authorities to have the man buried, and that no inquest was necessary. It is thought that the only object in having the Coroner come out was to have the man buried at the expense of the county.

BOOKING TIMES AT HOTEL CORONADO.

Business booking at the Mammoth Hotel—Large Engagements Ahead.

This magnificent mammoth hotel now presents a very gay scene. It is doing quite a large business, and orders ahead for room are pouring in. A party from San Francisco of some fifteen are expected tomorrow (Sunday). The regular semi-monthly excursion for Hotel del Coronado leaves this city at 10 a. m. today, and it promises well. A large party leave from here and Pasadena about the 15th, and over 130 will arrive on one of the Mammoth & Whitecomb excursions on Saturday, the 19th, from Boston. Tonight one of the most delightful balls of the season will be given at the assembly hall of the big hotel free to all guests.

Winter Excursions.

The liberal and attractive arrangements now held out to the public in the shape of winter excursions north would be all very nice and acceptable were it not for the cold, damp and often foggy weather to be met with there. To avoid this serious trouble, go south and visit the Hotel del Coronado, where glorious sunshine and healthy sea breezes await you, to say nothing of the hearty welcome and generous hospitality all receive at that popular resort.

The Agency of the Hotel del Coronado, Corner of Spring and Franklin streets, is a busy place these glorious winter days. They have many callers seeking information or examining the charts to select their rooms for the winter. But the hotel also appeals with its 750 apartments that all making application can depend upon securing comfortable sunny rooms in this the most commodious and charming winter resort on the Pacific Coast.

Rental Department.

Am now ready, under the terms of circular No. 1, Rental Agencies' Association, to take charge of the renting of houses, loading of stores or blocks, collecting rents, etc., having established in my office a department for this purpose. I assure my patrons of prompt and faithful attention to their interests. Will advertise their wants and use every endeavor to secure reliable tenants. I respectfully solicit your patronage. Ben E. Ward, 48 North Spring street.

Special Notice.
